WHAT'S NEW

Advancement of Virginia's Fixed Date Conformity with the Internal Revenue Code: The 2007 General Assembly enacted legislation that moved Virginia's fixed date conformity with the Internal Revenue Code from December 31, 2005, to December 31, 2006. At the time these instructions went to print, the only required adjustments for "fixed date conformity" were: (i) the special $30 \%$ and $50 \%$ bonus depreciation allowance for certain assets under the IRC, and (ii) the 5-year net operating loss (NOL) carry back allowed for net operating losses generated in taxable year 2001 or 2002. If federal legislation is enacted that results in changes to the Internal Revenue Code for the 2007 taxable year, taxpayers may be required to make adjustments to their Virginia returns that are not described in the instruction booklet. Supplemental instructions will be posted on our website: www.tax.virginia.gov.

Subtraction for certain death benefits: For 2007, you may subtract death benefit payments received from an annuity contract, to the extent that the payments were subject to federal income taxation.

Deduction for sales tax paid on energy efficient appliances: For 2007, you may claim a deduction equal to $20 \%$ of the sales tax paid on purchases of approved energy efficient equipment and appliances. The equipment and appliances must meet or exceed the applicable energy star efficiency requirements developed by the United States Environmental Protection Agency and the United States Department of Energy. Deductions cannot exceed $$ 500$ for the taxable year.

Income tax deduction for unreimbursed organ donor expenses: Beginning in 2007, you can claim an income tax deduction for unreimbursed expenses that are paid by an organ and tissue donor and that have not been taken as a medical deduction on your federal income tax return. The amount of the deduction is the lesser of $$ 5,000$ or the actual amount paid by the taxpayer.

Adjustment for S corporation shareholders: If you are a shareholder of an S corporation that is subject to the bank franchise tax, you may subtract your allocable share of the income or gain of the S corporation, to the extent that it was included in your federal adjusted gross income. You are also required to add back your share of the losses or deduction of the $S$ corporation, to the extent that it was included in federal adjusted gross income. Finally, you must also add back any distributions paid or distributed to you by the S corporation, to the extent the distributions were excluded from your federal adjusted gross income.

Contributions to the Martin Luther King, Jr. Living History and Public Policy Center Fund: For 2007, there is a new refund checkoff for contributions to the Martin Luther King, Jr. Living History and Public Policy Center Fund. The permanent memorial to Dr. King required by state law is a consortium of public and private institutions of higher education which continues the work and perpetuates the legacy of Dr. King through a "virtual center."

Repeal of the Virginia Estate Tax: Legislation enacted by the 2006 General Assembly, House Bill 5018, repeals the Virginia estate tax for the estates of decedents whose date of death occurs on or after July 1 , 2007. The estates of decedents whose date of death occurs before July 1, 2007, remain subject to the estate tax provisions. In addition, the repeal of the Virginia estate tax does not affect the filing requirements for fiduciary income tax, regardless of when the date of death occurs.

REMINDER

Extension for Filing Income Tax Returns: Taxpayers are granted an automatic six-month extension for filing an income tax return. No application for extension is required; however, any tentative tax due must be paid with a special extension voucher, Form 760IP, by the original due date for filing the return (May 1, 2008 for calendar year filers). The penalty for underpayment of tentative tax is $2 \%$ per month.

Do You Need to File a Virginia Income Tax Return?

Complete Form 760, Lines 1 through 9, to determine your Virginia adjusted gross income (VAGI). If the amount on Line 9 is less than the amount shown below for your filing status, your Virginia income tax is $$ 0.00$ and you are entitled to a refund of any withholding or estimated tax paid. You must file a return to receive a refund.
To claim a refund in these cases:

- Skip to Line 17 and enter "0" as your tax, then
- Complete Lines 18 through 31.

You must file if you are:
Single and your VAGI is $$ 7,000$ or more
Married filing jointly and combined VAGI is $$ 14,000$ or more
Married filing separately and your VAGI is $$ 7,000$ or more

When to File Your Return

- Calendar year filer - If your tax year is January 1, 2007 - December 31, 2007, your individual income tax return must be postmarked no later than May 1, 2008, to avoid late filing penalties and interest.
- Fiscal year filer - If your tax year is any consecutive 12 month period other than January - December, your return must be postmarked by the 15th day of the fourth month following the end of your fiscal year. When filing, you should write "Fiscal Year Filer" across the top of Page 1 of Form 760 and attach a statement indicating the beginning and ending months of your 12-month fiscal year.
- Outside U.S. - If you are living or traveling outside the United States and Puerto Rico (including serving in the military), the due date of your return is July 1, 2008. Fill in the overseas oval near the bottom of Page 2 of Virginia Form 760.
- Weekends and holidays - If the due date falls on a Saturday, Sunday or legal holiday, your return must be postmarked by the next business day.
Extension Provisions: Virginia law provides an automatic six-month filing extension for income tax returns. No application for extension is required. The extension is for filing the return, not for payment of the tax; therefore, you must pay at least 90 percent of your tax by the due date, May 1 for calendar year filers. To make a payment of tentative tax, use Form 760IP.
If you file your return within six months after the due date but do not meet the 90 percent payment requirement, an extension penalty of two percent per month will apply to the balance of tax due with your return from the due date through the date your return is filed, to a maximum of 12 percent of the tax due. Interest will also be accrued on any balance of tax due with a return filed within the extension period, regardless of whether the 90 percent payment requirement is met.
If you file your return within six months after the due date but do not pay the tax due at the time of filing, the unpaid balance will be subject to a late payment penalty of six percent per month from the date of filing through the date of payment, to a maximum of 30 percent. The late payment penalty will be assessed in addition to any extension penalty that may apply. The automatic extension provisions apply only to returns that are filed within six months from the due date. If you file your return more than six months after the due date, a late filing penalty of 30 percent will apply to the balance of tax due with your return.

Where to File

If you are filing a paper return, assemble your return and attachments according to the diagram on Page 5. For computer-generated returns, your completed Schedule INC/CG replaces the requirement for copies of $\mathrm{W}-2 \mathrm{~s}$. Refer to the back cover of this booklet for mailing instructions.

Residency Status and Choosing the Right Form to File

- There are two types of Virginia residents: domiciliary and actual.
- A domiciliary resident of another state may also be an actual resident of Virginia.
- Virginia residency may be either full year or part-year.
- A nonresident of Virginia may be required to file a Virginia return.

To determine which Virginia return you should file, first determine if you were a resident of Virginia at any time during the taxable year:

Step 1: Determine your residency status

Domiciliary Resident

You are a domiciliary (legal) resident if your permanent home is Virginia. Your permanent home is where, whenever you are absent, you intend to return. Every person has one and only one domiciliary residence at a time. Most domiciliary residents actually live in Virginia; however actual presence in the state is not required. If you have established legal domicile in Virginia, you are a domiciliary resident until you establish legal domicile in another state.

- Members of the armed forces who claim Virginia as their home of record are domiciliary residents, even if stationed outside of Virginia.
- A domiciliary resident who accepts employment outside of Virginia but who does not abandon Virginia as his or her domiciliary residence, even if outside of Virginia for many years, remains a domiciliary resident of Virginia. This includes domiciliary residents who accept employment outside of the United States.

Actual Resident

You are an actual resident if:
You maintained an abode in Virginia or were physically present in Virginia for more than 183 total days during the taxable year, even if you are a domiciliary resident of another state or country.
If you are an actual resident of Virginia, you may be required to file as a resident in Virginia and in your domiciliary state. In this situation, you should claim a credit on the return filed in the state of your legal domicile for taxes paid to Virginia.

Students: The rules for determining the residency status of a student are the same as for anyone else.
Military Personnel and Members of the U.S. Congress: If you are a member of the armed forces or of the U.S. Congress who is a domiciliary (legal) resident of another state, you are not subject to taxation as an actual resident of Virginia even if you maintained an abode in Virginia for more than 183 days. However, if you have income from Virginia sources other than your active duty or congressional pay, you may be required to file a Form 763, Nonresident income tax return.

Spouses, Dependents and Congressional Staff Members: The exemption for members of the armed forces and the U.S. Congress does not apply to spouses, dependents or congressional staff members. If you are a spouse or dependent of a member of the armed forces or of the U.S. Congress or you are employed by a member of the U. S. Congress, you must determine your own residency status and filing obligations, even if you filed a joint federal return.

Step 2: Determine which income tax return you should file Virginia Residents

File Form 760, Resident Return, if:

- You were an actual or domiciliary resident for the entire year; or
- You were an actual or domiciliary resident for a portion of the year, but all of your income for the entire year was from Virginia sources.

File Form 760PY, Part-Year Resident Return, if:

- You moved into Virginia during the taxable year and became either an actual or domiciliary resident; or
- You moved out of Virginia during the taxable year and became a domiciliary resident of another state, provided you did not move back to Virginia within six months.
Note to Part-Year Residents: If you had Virginia source income during the taxable year while you were a nonresident, you may also be required to file Form 763, Nonresident return. See Nonresidents, below.

Married Taxpayers: If one spouse is a nonresident, you may not file a joint Virginia return, even if you filed a joint federal return. The resident spouse will file either Form 760 or Form 760PY, while the nonresident spouse will file Form 763, if applicable. However, if one spouse is a full-year resident and the other spouse is a part-year resident, you may file a joint return using Form 760PY. See the 760PY instructions for information.

Nonresidents

File Form 763, Nonresident Return, if:

You had income from Virginia sources, other than interest from personal savings accounts, interest or dividends from an individual stock market investment, or pension payments from a Virginia payor.
Income from Virginia sources includes:

1. Items of income gain, loss and deductions attributable to: a) The ownership of any interest in real or tangible personal property in Virginia; b) A business trade, profession, or occupation carried on in Virginia; and c) Prizes paid by the Virginia Lottery, and gambling winnings from wagers placed or paid at a location in Virginia.
2. Income from intangible personal property, including annuities, dividends, interest, royalties and gains from the disposition of intangible personal property employed by an individual in a business, trade, profession or occupation carried on in this state.
If you were a Virginia resident for part of the year and you also received Virginia source income during your period of residence outside Virginia, you must file Form 760PY and Form 763. The Virginia source income reported on Form 763 will be only the Virginia source income you received while a nonresident.

Exceptions for Certain Nonresidents

Kentucky and the District of Columbia: If you are a resident of Kentucky or the District of Columbia who commutes daily to work in Virginia, you are not required to file a Form 763 Nonresident return, provided that 1) you had no actual place of abode in Virginia at any time during the taxable year and 2) your only income from Virginia sources is salaries and wages and 3) your salary and wages are subject to income taxation by Kentucky or the District of Columbia.
Maryland, Pennsylvania and West Virginia: If you are a resident of Maryland, Pennsylvania or West Virginia and you earn salaries and wages in Virginia, you do not have to file a Form 763, Nonresident return, provided that 1) your only income from Virginia sources is salaries and wages and 2) you were present in Virginia for 183 days or less during the taxable year and 3) your salaries and wages are subject to taxation by Maryland, Pennsylvania, or West Virginia.
The exception for certain nonresidents of Kentucky, the District of Columbia, Maryland, Pennsylvania and West Virginia applies only to salaries and wages. For Virginia source income not specifically exempted, you must file the Form 763, Nonresident return.

If one filer on the return is deceased, only the surviving spouse's name should appear in the name fields on the front of Virginia Form 760. The surviving spouse should enter

Deceased taxpayer - If a refund is due, and the return filed is not a joint return with the surviving spouse, a copy of federal Form 1310 or the appropriate court appointment papers must be included with the return so that the refund may be issued in the name of the personal representative. his or her Social Security Number in the "Your Social Security Number" field. Enter the Social Security Number for the deceased spouse in the "Spouse's Social Security Number" field. This will ensure that any refund is properly issued to the surviving spouse. Be sure to fill in the oval on the back of the form for deceased spouse.
If your address has changed since last filing be sure to fill in the oval in the street address area.
Ovals - Fill in any ovals that apply to you.

- Name or filing status has changed since last filing.
- Virginia return was not filed last year.
- Return adjusted for fixed date conformity - fill in the oval if the return has an addition, subtraction or an adjustment to itemized deductions due to fixed date conformity.
- Dependent on another's return - See Page 10.
- Amended return - See Page 25 for details.

Fiscal year filers: Your return must be postmarked by the 15th day of the fourth month following the end of your fiscal year. When filing, you should write "Fiscal Year Filer" across the top of Page 1 of Form 760 and attach a statement indicating the beginning and ending months of your 12-month fiscal year.

Social Security Number

Enter your Social Security Number and the first four letters of your last name in the boxes. If using Filing Status 2, you must also enter the Social Security Number and first four letters of the last name of your spouse. For Filing Status 3, enter your spouse's Social Security Number and record your spouse's name on the line under the Filing Status 3 oval.

PRIVACY ACT

In compliance with the Privacy Act of 1974, disclosure of your Social Security Number is mandatory under the authority of Section 58.1-209 of the Code of Virginia. Your Social Security Number is used both as a means of identifying your income tax return and also of verifying the identity of individuals for income tax refund purposes.

Locality Code: Please be sure to properly identify the city or county where you live. Local school funding is allocated based in part on this information. Look up the three-digit code on the inside back cover for the locality in which you lived on January 1, 2008. Enter the corresponding number in the boxes provided on the form.

Filing Status

In most cases, your filing status will be the same as the one you selected on your federal return. Fill in the oval next to the appropriate filing status. Fill in the Head of Household oval if you checked the Head of Household box on your federal return.
If one spouse is a Virginia resident and the other is a nonresident, they may not file a joint Virginia return, even if they filed a joint federal return. The resident spouse files a separate return under Filing Status 3, using Form 760. A nonresident spouse who has Virginia source income to report will file a separate return on Form 763. The spouses must compute their itemized deductions and allocate exemptions for dependents as if they had filed separate federal returns. As a general rule, the spouse claiming an exemption for a dependent must be reporting at least half of the total federal adjusted gross income. In addition, the spouse must be able to support his/her claim of itemized deductions. If the underlying expenses for itemized deductions cannot be accounted separately, each spouse may claim a proportionate share of the deductions based on their respective shares of their joint federal adjusted gross income.

Exemptions

Fill in the bubbles to claim the personal exemptions you are allowed. Because you are always entitled to claim an exemption for yourself, that bubble is already filled. Enter the number of dependent exemptions you are allowed in the boxes. If you are not entitled to a particular exemption, leave the bubble or box blank. Generally, you may claim the same number of dependent exemptions allowed on your federal return. The same dependent cannot be claimed on more than one Virginia return.

You cannot claim the 65+ or Blind exemptions if you also claim a credit for Low Income Individuals on Line 21 of Form 760.
Multiply the number in the "Total" box of section A by $$ 900$. Multiply the number in the "Total" box of Section $B$ by $$ 800$. Add the dollar amount from Section $A$ to the dollar amount from Section B and enter the sum on Line 11.

Note for Filing Status 3 Each spouse must determine exemptions as if he or she had filed separate federal returns, using federal rules for separate reporting. If the number of dependent exemptions cannot be accounted for separately, they must be proportionately allocated between each spouse based on each spouse's income. One spouse may never claim less than a whole personal exemption.

Line Instructions

Round to Whole Dollars:

To improve accuracy of return preparation and speed the processing of your return, all amount entries on your return must be rounded to the nearest dollar. Amounts less than 50 cents should be rounded down while all amounts of 50 cents -99 cents should be rounded up.

Line 1 Federal Adjusted Gross Income Enter the federal adjusted gross income from your federal return. If married filing separately (Filing Status 3), enter only the amount of income attributable to you. Be sure to use the federal adjusted gross income amount, NOT federal taxable income.
Line 2 Additions If you reported any additions on Virginia Schedule ADJ, enter the total amount from Line 3 of Schedule ADJ.

Line 3 Add Lines 1 and 2 and enter the total.

Line 4 Instructions - Age Deduction

Are you eligible to claim an age deduction? If so, enter your birth date (and your spouse's birth date, if applicable) in the boxes provided.
For 2007, taxpayers born on or before January 1, 1943, may qualify to claim an age deduction based on birth date, filing status and income. A taxpayer who claims an age deduction may NOT claim either of the following:
Disability Subtraction: If you claim an age deduction, you may not claim a disability subtraction. For married taxpayers, each spouse, if eligible, may claim either an age deduction or a disability subtraction. You should claim the deduction or subtraction that gives you the greatest tax benefit.
Credit for Low Income Individuals or Virginia Earned Income Credit: You may not claim both an age deduction and a credit for low income or Virginia Earned Income Credit. For married taxpayers filing separate returns, if one spouse claimed a credit for low income or Virginia Earned Income Credit, neither spouse can claim an age deduction.
If you, or your spouse if you are married, are not claiming a disability subtraction or a credit for low income and your birth date is on or before January 1, 1943, please read the information below to determine if you qualify for an age deduction and how to determine the amount of the age deduction you may claim for 2007.

Taxpayers Age 65 and Older

If you, or your spouse if you are married, were born on or before January 1, 1943, you may qualify to claim an age deduction of up to $$ 12,000$ each for 2007. The age deduction you may claim will depend upon your birth date, filing status and income.

If your birth date is:

- On or before January 1, 1939: You may claim an age deduction of $$ 12,000$. If you are married, each spouse born on or before January 1, 1939, may claim a $$ 12,000$ age deduction. For individuals born after January 1, 1939, the age deduction is based on the criteria below.
- On or between January 2, 1939, and January 1, 1943: Your age deduction is based on your income. A taxpayer's income, for purposes of determining an income-based age deduction is the taxpayer's adjusted federal adjusted gross income or "AFAGI." A taxpayer's AFAGI is the taxpayer's federal adjusted gross income, modified for any fixed date conformity adjustments, and reduced by any taxable Social Security and Tier 1 Railroad Benefits.
- For Filing Status 1, Single Taxpayer, the maximum allowable age deduction of $$ 12,000$ is reduced $$ 1$ for every $$ 1$ the taxpayer's AFAGI exceeds $$ 50,000$.
- For All Married Taxpayers, whether filing jointly or separately, the maximum allowable age deduction of $$ 12,000$ each is reduced $$ 1$ for every $$ 1$ the married taxpayers' joint AFAGI exceeds $75,000.

To compute your income-based age deduction,  use the Age 65 and Older Age Deduction worksheet on the next page.

Notice to All Married Taxpayers: A married taxpayer's income-based age deduction is always determined using the married taxpayers' joint AFAGI. Regardless of whether you are filing jointly or separately, if you are married, your income-based age deduction is determined using both your and your spouse's income. In addition, if both spouses are claiming an income-based age deduction, regardless of whether filing jointly or separately, the married taxpayers must compute a joint age deduction first, then allocate half of the joint deduction to each spouse.

Age 65 and Older Age Deduction Worksheet

FOR 2007: Only taxpayers born on or between January 2, 1939, and January 1, 1943, may claim an income-based age deduction for 2007. Married taxpayers, regardless of whether filing jointly or separately, or whether one or both spouses are claiming an income-based age deduction, always enter the combined total of both spouses' income.

You can calculate your Spouse Tax Adjustment (STA) online at the TAX website.
www.tax.virginia.gov

To claim a Spouse Tax Adjustment, both taxpayers on the joint return must have income.

To speed processing, be sure to enter the Virginia Adjusted Gross Income for each spouse on Lines 16a & 16b.

Line 11 Exemptions Enter the total dollar amount from Exemption Section A plus the total dollar amount from Exemption Section B.

Line 12 Deductions If you reported any deductions on Virginia Schedule ADJ, enter the total amount from Line 9 of Schedule ADJ. You must attach the Schedule ADJ to your return.

If you are only claiming a deduction for Child and Dependent Care Expenses enter the amount of the deduction and fill in the oval. You do not need to attach Schedule ADJ.

Line 13 Add Lines 10, 11 and 12 and enter the total.
Line 14 Virginia Taxable Income Subtract Line 13 from Line 9.
Line 15 Amount of Tax To compute your tax, you can use either the tax table or the tax rate schedule on Page 31 or use the Tax Calculator on our website.

Line 16 Spouse Tax Adjustment (STA) Couples filing jointly under Filing Status 2 may reduce their tax by up to $$ 259$ with the STA if both have taxable income to report and their joint taxable income on Line 14 is more than $$ 3,000$. Using the STA, couples filing joint returns will not pay higher taxes than if they had filed separate returns. To complete the Spouse Tax Adjustment Worksheet:

- Recompute your Federal Adjusted Gross Income (FAGI) as if you and your spouse filed separate federal returns. A worksheet is provided on the next page to help in computing separate FAGI.
- Use the recomputed FAGI to compute the Virginia Adjusted Gross Income (VAGI) for each spouse.
- Use the separate VAGI on Line 1 of the Spouse Tax Adjustment Worksheet.

HOW IT WORKS: Virginia tax rates increase with income: 2\% up to $$ 3,000$; $3 \%$ from $$ 3,001$ to $$ 5,000 ; 5 \%$ from $$ 5,001$ to $$ 17,000$ and $5.75 \%$ for income over $$ 17,000$. The STA lets both incomes reported on jointly filed returns benefit from the lower tax rates.

EXAMPLE: The Smiths have combined Virginia taxable income of $42,000. Mr. Smith's income is $$ 30,000$ and Mrs. Smith's income is $$ 12,000$. Without the STA, their Virginia tax is $$ 2,157$. With the STA, both incomes benefit from the lower tax rates. Using the STA Calculator at www.tax.virginia.gov, the Smiths compute an STA of $$ 214$, reducing their taxes to $$ 1,943$. If you cannot access the TAX website, use the following worksheet to calculate your STA. You will need your federal tax return and, if applicable, a completed Virginia Schedule ADJ.

Enter your STA amount on Line 16 of Form 760. You must also enter the Virginia Adjusted Gross Income (VAGI) for each spouse on Lines 16a and 16b.

INSTRUCTIONS FOR VIRGINIA SCHEDULE ADJ

FIXED DATE CONFORMITY UPDATE FOR 2007

Virginia's date of conformity with the Internal Revenue Code was advanced from December 31, 2005, to December 31, 2006. The special $30 \%$ and $50 \%$ bonus depreciation allowance for certain assets under the IRC and the 5-year net operating loss (NOL) carry back allowed for net operating losses generated in taxable year 2001 or 2002 are still not allowed.

At the time these instructions went to print, the only required adjustments for "fixed date conformity" were the two mentioned above. However, if federal legislation has been enacted that results in changes to the Internal Revenue Code for the 2007 taxable year, taxpayers will be required to make adjustments to their Virginia returns that are not described in the instruction booklet. Information about any such adjustments will be posted on the Department's website at www.tax.virginia.gov.

Extension penalty: If you file your return within six months after the due date and the amount of tax due with the return is more than 10 percent of your total tax liability, you must compute an extension penalty on the balance of tax due. The maximum extension penalty is 12 percent of the tax due. Note: If you do not pay the tax in full when you file your return, a late payment penalty will be assessed at the rate of 6 percent per month or part of a month from the date the return is filed through the date the tax is paid, to a maximum of 30 percent. The late payment penalty is imposed in addition to the extension penalty.
Late filing penalty: If you file your return more than six months after the due date, no extension provisions apply, and you must compute a late filing penalty of 30 percent of the tax due with your return.
Line 20 Interest If you filed a tax due return after the filing date, even if you had an extension, you are liable for interest on the tax due amount on Form 760, Line 25, from the due date to the date filed or postmarked. See Virginia Code Section 58.1-332 for information on capital assets. If the income is from Arizona, District of Columbia, California or Oregon, claim the credit on the nonresident income tax return of that state instead of on the Virginia return. Attach a complete copy Schedule OSC and the other state's return(s) to Form 760. The credit must be computed separately for each state. Schedule OSC is available on our website at www.tax.virginia.gov or by calling (804) 440-2541.

TAX RATE SCHEDULE

IF YOUR VIRGINIA TAXABLE INCOME IS:

Not over $$ 3,000$, your tax is $2 \%$ of your Virginia taxable income.

| over- | but not  over- | your tax  is- | of excess  over- |
| :--- | :--- | :--- | :--- |
| $$ 3,000$ | $$ 5,000$ | $$ 60+3 \%$ | $$ 3,000$ |
| $$ 5,000$ | $$ 17,000$ | $$ 120+5 \%$ | $$ 5,000$ |
| $$ 17,000$ |  | $$ 720+5.75 \%$  Example | $$ 17,000$ |

If your taxable income is $$ 90,000$, your tax is $$ 720+5.75 \%$ of the amount over $$ 17,000$. This equals $$ 720+(.0575 \times $ 73,000)=$ 720+$ 4,197.50=$ 4,917.50$ which should be rounded to $$ 4,918$.
